CODE OF CONDUCT

Youth sports play an important role in promoting the physical, social, and emotional development of young people who can recognize choices, think about consequences and base their actions on that information. Therefore, it is essential for coaches, spectators, parents and officials to encourage young student athletes to embrace the values of good sportsmanship. Furthermore, coaches, spectators, parents and officials involved in youth sports events should be models of excellent sportsmanship and should lead by example by demonstrating respect, fairness and self-control. Urban Elite Athletics (“UEA”) and NYCBS is committed to establishing an environment that is safe and fosters optimal learning opportunities for all of our players. UEA has formulated this Code of Conduct and requires you to commit to being responsible for your words and actions while coaching, attending and/or participating in UEA events and that you confirm your behavior to the following Code of Conduct:
